

For Immediate Release

Group RHI Expands Operation with Two Pennsylvania Firms

Capital Retirement Plan Services and Boetger Retirement are latest addition to national expansion

BOSTON (July 31, 2020) – Group RHI, a national retirement services firm, today announced the acquisition of two Pennsylvania retirement services firms: Capital Retirement Plan Services and Boetger Retirement Plan Services.

Capital Retirement Plan Services (CRPS) manages the design and administration of 401(k) and defined benefit plans for clients across Pennsylvania, West Virginia and the surrounding area. Based in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, CRPS has built an outstanding reputation for retirement plan administrative services during its more than 20 years in business.

Boetger Retirement Plan Services, based in Erie, Pennsylvania, specializes in actuarial consulting, retirement plan design and recordkeeping for public and private sector clients. The firm serves clients in over 30 Pennsylvania cities, counties, towns, and townships and has a particular expertise in designing and administering cash balance plans.

“We’re delighted to welcome our new colleagues at Capital and Boetger,” said Group RHI CEO Tom Gaillard. “Founders Gerald Cathell and Don Boetger are recognized leaders in the industry, and we expect they’ll make tremendous contributions to furthering our mission.”

“Since our inception, we’ve taken pride in developing a reputation for quality, expert retirement services. When the opportunity was presented to align our business with Group RHI, it was an easy decision to join forces,” said Don Boetger, President of Boetger Retirement. “We look forward to new opportunities to serve clients and strengthen our staff with Group RHI.”

Gerald Cathell echoed Boetger’s excitement. “The retirement plan industry is changing rapidly, and it was important to me and my team to join forces with a leader. With Group RHI we’re better positioned to service our clients’ needs by leveraging the company’s investments in technology, people and systems.”

The firms are the most recent additions to the growing Group RHI organization, which serves thousands of retirement plan clients across the United States. As a national leader in the retirement services industry, Group RHI offers clients robust local service supported by a growing body of retirement plan experts.

About Group RHI

Group RHI provides retirement services that help companies and their employees maximize their savings and prepare for tomorrow. Services include 401(k) plan design and compliance, pension services and actuarial consulting. Clients rely on Group RHI’s sound advice, transparent pricing, and freedom to work with the investment managers of their choice in creating custom retirement plan solutions. For more information about Group RHI please visit www.grouprhi.com.

About Boetger Retirement

Boetger is a retirement services firm specializing in public and private sector actuarial consulting, plan design, administration and recordkeeping. The firm has served organizations across the state of Pennsylvania for three decades with a focus on responsive, value-added services to hundreds of clients.

About Capital Retirement Plan Services

Capital Retirement Plan Services is a consulting, design and administration firm specializing in qualified retirement plan administration. The firm's dedicated team maintains and administers plans for hundreds of businesses in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and the surrounding area.

Media Contact

Elke Giba

Director of Marketing

elke.giba@grouprhi.com

214.997.6046